

Annual Declaration of Compliance

In accordance with Chapter 8, Part 15, Division 104 of the California Health and Safety Code (§§ 119400-119402), United Therapeutics Corporation (UT) has established an annual aggregate dollar limit of $1,500 per healthcare professional licensed in California for the following items: 1) meals provided in connection with informational presentations or scientific exchange; 2) educational items intended to enhance patient care (excluding items of minimal monetary value and/or of no independent value (e.g. printed advertising, reimbursement fact sheets)) and items for the benefit of and distribution to patients/care givers. Based on a good faith understanding of the statutory requirements, UT's Corporate Compliance Program meets the requirements of Chapter 8, Part 15, Division 104 of the California Health and Safety Code (§§ 119400-119402). United Therapeutics requires our employees to comply with our Code of Conduct, healthcare compliance policies, and other policies related to gifts, promotional materials, or items or activities provided to healthcare professionals. Furthermore, our Corporate Compliance Policies have been designed to prevent and detect violations. In the event United Therapeutics becomes aware of potential violations of law or company policy, United Therapeutics will, where appropriate, take reasonable steps to investigate the matter, pursue disciplinary action, and/or implement corrective measures to prevent future violations. The above Declaration and UT's Code of Conduct can be found by clicking here.

Dated: December 1, 2023